

PLANNING A CATHOLIC FUNERAL AT
Saint Mary Basilica
Natchez, Mississippi

What is the purpose of a Catholic Funeral?

The Catholic funeral differs in many ways from a funeral in the secular world. While non-Catholics use funerals as opportunities to celebrate the life of the deceased, in a Catholic funeral the Church fulfills the spiritual work of mercy to pray for the dead. We know in faith that our earthly life is not the end, but is merely a preparation for eternal life — a life which we hope to share with Christ Jesus the Lord. For this reason, we have a duty to our deceased loved ones to pray for them and beg for the mercy of God, that all their sins will be forgiven and washed away, and that they will be raised to the eternal joy of heaven.

The elements chosen for a Catholic funeral reflect our belief and aid us by encouraging us to pray for our deceased loved one. The options given below are provided as a guide in selecting appropriate texts for the Catholic funeral Mass.

Readings from Sacred Scripture:

Three readings are selected from sacred scripture. The first reading is taken from the Old Testament (outside Eastertime) or from Acts of the Apostles or Revelation (during Easter). The second reading is taken from a letter in the New Testament. The Third is from one of the four Gospels. Additionally, a Psalm is chosen to be sung. The options provided here are determined by the ritual of the Catholic Church and no substitutions are permitted. To assist you, the more popular selections are *marked.

The family may select one or two readers or the parish may provide readers for you. Readers must be practicing Roman Catholics. It is recommended that members of the immediate family of the deceased not serve as readers.

	First Reading (Outside Eastertime):
*2 Maccabees 12:43-64	“...he made atonement for the dead...”
Job 19:1,23-27	“...I know that my vindicator lives...”
*Ecclesiastes 3:1-8	“...A time to be born, a time to die...”
*Ecclesiastes 3:1-15	(A longer version of the above)
*Wisdom 3:1-9	“...the souls of the just are in the hand of God...”
*Wisdom 3:1-6:9	(An abbreviated version of the above)

Musical Selections:

The musical selections provided here reflect the meaning and theme of the Catholic funeral. In general, other selections will not be permitted — especially those taken from pop music. It should be noted that some songs which are commonly heard at non-Catholic funerals do not adequately reflect the Catholic understanding of grace and forgiveness, thus they do not appear below.

At all funeral Masses, the organist and singers are provided by the Basilica Choir. Other musicians may be permitted by approval of the Director of Sacred Music.

Entrance:	The Antiphon: “Eternal rest, grant unto him/her, O Lord”
Mass Setting:	The Belmont Mass    OR    Mass XVIII (Chant)
Psalm:	(As selected above)
Alleluia/ Acclamation:	The verse: “If we die with Christ, we shall live with him...”

Miscellaneous Notes:

Altar Servers

You are welcome to provide trained servers from among family and friends. Servers must be Catholic, have received their First Holy Communion, and have experience serving at their own parish. The Basilica is always able to provide servers for you.

Intercessions

The intercessions used in the Funeral Mass are provided by the ritual. A copy is available in this packet. The intercessions may be read by either reader who has already been selected, or by a third reader.

Remarks from Family/Friends

The most appropriate place for remarks and eulogies is at the Visitation and Vigil. However, one (1) speaker may provide brief (2-3mins) remarks before the Funeral Mass as part of the welcome and greetings.

Visitation and Vigil

Because funerals usually occur during work days when people are not always able to attend, we recommend a visitation take place the night before. This may occur at the Basilica, and in this situation the body or remains of the deceased may be left overnight in the Basilica which will be locked and secure. (This is to avoid any additional cost to transfer the body to and from the funeral home).

If the family desires it, a Vigil may also occur at the end of visitation. An outline is given on the next page:

Vigil For the Deceased

1. Visitation occurs for the duration desired.
2. Then, everyone is invited to find a seat in the Basilica.
3. A prayer is offered. Followed by a reading from Scripture (This reading may be taken from the above selections or from any other section of the Bible.)
4. [Remarks or reflections are made by pre-selected friends or family members.]
5. A closing prayer is said, followed by a blessing and dismissal. Or, the Rosary may be prayed, led by either the Priest or by a family member or friend.

Alternatively, the family may choose to hold visitation before the funeral, or at the funeral home. In this case, a formal Vigil is not held, but the Priest is available to come and pray with the family or offer the Rosary.

Other Ministers and Guest Celebrants/Homilists

The other ministers required for the Mass are, in general, provided by the Basilica parish (e.g. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Ushers, etc.) Friends and family members may serve as ushers if desired.

If the family desires that the Celebrant of the funeral be another priest who is not in residence at the Basilica, the family needs to make this request directly to the Rector. Priests who are not incardinated in the Diocese of Jackson will be required to provide a Letter of Suitability from their Diocese. Even if the Celebrant is a guest priest, the regulations given in this packet are to be followed for all Funerals at the Basilica parish.

Concelebrating priests are always welcome for all liturgies at the Basilica. Deacons who are not incardinated in the Diocese of Jackson will similarly be required to provide a Letter of Suitability from their Diocese.

A visiting concelebrant or deacon is welcome to serve as homilist at the request of the family.
