

INVITATION

Welcome Home: Becoming Catholic

A study of Catholic beliefs and practices including the Church Creed, sacraments, worship, prayer, morality and commandments. No charge.

INVITED:

Persons who want to learn about Catholic beliefs and practices and who might consider becoming a member of the Church at some time

And

Persons, baptized in the Catholic Faith, who dropped out of the active practice of the faith and who now want to return to the full and active living of the faith again

And

Catholics who, living their faith fully, who are interested in updating their understanding of Catholic beliefs and practices.

And

Young parents who want to be better prepared to teach their children and update themselves.

BEGINNING: “Come and See”: Date and time to be announced in early Fall
(Guided tour of St. Mary Basilica and overview of the study)

WEEKLY PROGRAM:

Every Thursday in the FLC Youth Center (beginning in September)

6:00—6:30 p.m. Light Supper

6:30—7:30 p.m. Presentation by an instructor followed by questions, answers, and discussion.

TOPICS OF STUDY

Line by Line Through the Creed: Core Beliefs

Worship and Sacraments

The Catholic Moral Life

Joyously Living the Catholic Faith

BABYSITTING: Available each Thursday evening beginning in September

OPTIONAL TEXTBOOK: The Catechism of the Catholic Church (Copies are available.)

INSTRUCTORS: Ruth Powers, Mike Roboski, Elizabeth Boggess, Charles Garrity,
Father Aaron Williams, and others

FURTHER INFORMATION: Contact the parish office: 601 445-5616 or parishprograms@stmarybasilica.org