PASTOR'S CORNER By Father Aaron Williams

Jesuit Martyrs

St. Jean de Brébeuf was a French Jesuit who came to Canada at the age of 32 and labored there for 24 years. He went back to France when the English captured Quebec in 1629 and expelled the Jesuits, but he returned to his missions four years later. Although medicine men blamed the Jesuits for a smallpox epidemic among the Hurons, Jean remained with them. He composed catechisms and a dictionary in Huron and saw 7,000 converted before his death in 1649. Having been captured by the Iroquois at Sainte Marie, near Georgian Bay, Canada, Father Brébeuf died after four hours of extreme torture.

St. Isaac Jogues and his companions were the first martyrs of the North American continent officially recognized by the Church. As a young Jesuit, Isaac Jogues, a man of learning and culture, taught literature in France. He gave up that career to work among the Huron Indians in the New World; and in 1636, he and his companions, under the leadership of Jean de Brébeuf, arrived in Quebec. The Hurons were constantly warred upon by the Iroquois, and in a few years Father Jogues was captured by the Iroquois and imprisoned for 13 months. His letters and journals tell how he and his companions were led from village to village, how they were beaten, tortured, and forced to watch as their Huron converts were mangled and killed.

Imaginative Prayer Workshop
October 15, 2024 6:00 - 7:00 p.m. Family Life Center

Do you find it hard to focus when you pray? Is the way you typically pray grown stale? Join Melinda Laird as she walks you through the steps of Imaginative Prayer (also known as Ignatian Contemplation). In the Gospels, Jesus taught his disciples through the use of stories that engage the Imagination, but sometimes we forget this important prayer tool is available to us still today! We will cover some basics for daily prayer, how Imaginative Prayer is different from Lectio Divina and other forms of prayer, learn the steps of Imaginative Prayer, and then, pray. It does not matter if you are a regular dedicated daily prayer person or if you are just getting started or recommitting to your prayer time. All are welcome—Tuesday, October 15, 2024 at 6:00 p.m. in the Family Life Center!

LEARN FROM OUR PAST:

A BRIEF HISTORY OF CATHOLICISM IN THE UNITED STATES

Catholicism is part of our identity at St. Mary Basilica, but are we aware of the hardships and discrimination our Catholic ancestors faced in this country? It is a topic that deserves our contemplation as we prepare to exercise our hard-won rights in November. Ruth Powers will present a brief talk on the history of Catholicism in the US from colonial times until the present at 6:30 p.m. in the Family Life Center after the Parish Dinner on October 16, 2024.
